

France winners at World Travel Awards revealed

🕒 PUBLISHED: 13:03 12 November 2020 | UPDATED: 13:03 12 November 2020

| Lucy Parford

InterContinental Bordeaux - Le Grand Hotel (c) E.Cuvillier

France's leading hotels, resorts and tour operators have been crowned following a year's search for the world's top travel and tourism destinations.

The World Travel Awards, which recognise and reward excellence in travel and tourism, has announced its Europe 2020 winners which include Disneyland Paris as Europe's Leading Theme Park Resort; DFDS, which operates ferries from Dover to Calais, as Europe's Leading Ferry Operator and Hilton Hotels & Resorts as Europe's Leading Hotel Brand, with many other hotels in France singled out for success too.

The opulent décor at Le Pressoir d'Argent Gordon Ramsay (c) Julien Faure

France's Leading Hotel 2020: InterContinental Bordeaux - Le Grand Hotel

Nostalgic French décor and UNESCO World Heritage architecture set the scene at this hotel in Bordeaux, with classic rooms decorated with tasteful, 19th-century furnishings and executive rooms boasting marble bathrooms with heated floors. The hotel, which has won the award for the second year running, has a gourmet restaurant inspired by Gordon Ramsay, as well as an indoor swimming pool and Guerlain Spa.

Hôtel Crillon le Brave in the heart of Vaucluse (c) Camille Moirenc

France's Leading Boutique Hotel: Hôtel Crillon le Brave

Hôtel Crillon le Brave is a 5-star hotel in the heart of Vaucluse, Provence, surrounded by beautiful scenery, vineyards and olive trees. The hotel consists of 10 ancient houses, with 16 rooms and 18 suites decorated with antique furniture and carefully selected artefacts. Produce from Provence's markets is given pride of place on the menus of its two restaurants – La Madeleine gastronomic restaurant which serves Mediterranean-style cuisine and relaxed La Table du Ventoux.

A Rooftop Garden Suite at night at The Peninsula Paris

France's Leading Luxury Hotel: The Peninsula Paris

Situated in Avenue Kléber, The Peninsula is in the heart of the French capital within walking distance of some of the world's most famous monuments, museums and shopping districts. The hotel has 200 luxurious rooms, terraces, gardens and stunning skyline views. Enjoy the Peninsula Afternoon Tea served in The Lobby before taking a dip in the 20m indoor pool.

A Palace Sea-View suite at Grand-Hôtel du Cap-Ferrat with windows looking out onto the Mediterranean (c) Christian Horan/Four Seasons

France's Leading Hotel Suite: Palace Sea-View Suite at Grand Hôtel du Cap-Ferrat

A French Riviera destination since 1908, Grand-Hôtel du Cap-Ferrat enjoys an enviable location overlooking the Mediterranean Sea. Its luxurious sea-view suites occupy the corners of the hotel's heritage building with windows looking out to the sparkling sea from two directions. The residential-style suites have a separate living area, king bedroom and a wide terrace to enjoy those ocean views.

France's Leading Business Hotel and Leading Conference Hotel: InterContinental Paris – Le Grand

Offering historic charm in central Paris, this luxury hotel has superb views of the Palais Garnier, home to the esteemed Paris Opera. It has an illustrious history of hosting Paris' most exclusive events and its Salon Opera ballroom has been magnificently restored.

Other winners at the awards included Sixt (France's Leading Car Rental Company); Citadines Apart'hotel (France's Leading Serviced Apartment Brand); Fraser Suites Le Claridge Champs-Élysées (France's Leading Serviced Apartments); France Tourisme (France's Leading Tour Operator); Vidal Voyages (France's Leading Travel Agency) and The French Travel (France's Leading Travel Management Company).

Votes were cast by travel industry professionals and the public, with the nominee gaining the most votes in a category named as the winner.

Graham Cooke, World Travel Awards founder, says: "Our winners represent the very best of Europe's travel and tourism sector and my congratulations to each of them. They have all demonstrated remarkable resilience in a year of unprecedented challenges."

For the full list of winners, visit worldtravelawards.com