STAY HERE

Le Grand Mazarin, Paris

After Crillon le Brave in Provence, Lou Pinet in Saint-Tropez and Le Coucou in Méribel, Maisons Pariente has chosen the heart of the Marais for its new 5-star address, Le Grand Mazarin. In this creative and vibrant neighbourhood, Le Grand Mazarin is at its epicentre, created by renowned interior architect Martin Brudnizki who has been inspired by Grand Siècle classicism providing a decor oozing character, bathed in natural light, with a concern for perfect comfort, where guests can live in complete privacy. The first urban hotel of the collection embodies the cosmopolitan eclecticism emblematic of the Marais, a jewel box of elegance and sophistication that channels a mixture of styles with a touch of humour. With 61 individually decorated rooms and suites, a spectacular restaurant and bar, and a swimming pool, Maisons Pariente has created an unexpected experience that's an ode to the City of Light.

Rates start from €690 per night.

WEAR THIS

Deji Studios

Watch The Six Pack: The Linen Co-ord here

Australian label Deji Studios have been creating the most beautiful linen and cotton pieces, aiming to blur the lines between what we wear at home, and what we step out of the house in. Believing that you are your most confident self when you feel your most comfortable, the founders created a selection of linen sets and robes which are hypoallergenic, breathable, relaxed and perfect for lounging in, but also chic enough to be seen in outside. They have since expanded into oversized poplin dresses, cotton basics and quilted co-ords. A breathable pyjama set you'll be able to dress up in the summer with a pair of sandals and gold drop earrings—what's not to like?
