

Beefbar at Lou Pinet, Saint Tropez, France

Why do we love it? Just look at that location!

The Beefbar is located at hotel Lou Pinet, a luxury hideaway in the French Riviera's legendary town of Saint-Tropez. The property's vintage spirit of the '60s is embodied throughout the architecture, landscape, and suites, each bathed in light tones with a private garden and outdoor lounge. Merging seamlessly with the property's chic style, the Beefbar restaurant features the best meats in the world, cooked without complex between grill and street food. It was founded in 2005 in Monaco by Riccardo Giraudi with over twelve hotspot locations worldwide, offering American black angus prime, Australian wagyu WX, and certified Japanese kobe beef for meat lovers, plus seafood such as tuna tartare and hamachi crudo, and smaller dishes of avocado hummus and classic pizza. Serving lunch and dinner daily, guests can savor the world's finest meats and dishes in the New Saint-Tropez.
