

RESTAURANT UPDATE

Le Coucou Reopens With a New Restaurant, New Food Concept and An Enhanced Spa Offering

 by 7 days ago

Opening on 9th December with new alpine dining and family focussed spa treatments

Maisons Pariente's Hotel Le Coucou will be reopening its doors for the winter season on 9th December 2022 with exciting upgrades to the food offering, including a new alpine restaurant and upgraded menus. Also new for this season, the hotel's spa has introduced signature Tata Harper treatments, exclusive to Maisons Pariente's properties along with an incredible selection of Aime Skincare offerings including Mathilde Lacombe signature collagen milk drinks and a unique sleep and glow treatment. From incredible alpine dining to family friendly spa treatments, there is something for everyone at Le Coucou this winter.

Le Fumoir – Le Coucou's new mountain restaurant

Brand new for the season, Le Coucou is delighted to introduce a new restaurant, Le Fumoir, located in the eaves of the hotel. The hotel's old smoking room has been redesigned into an intimate mountain restaurant which will provide a cosy setting, seating up to 16 guests. This season guests will be indulging in a completely new menu of favourite alpine dishes, from raclette and fondues, to tartiflette and smoked meat dishes.

Dining at Biancaneve & Beefbar – New menu's

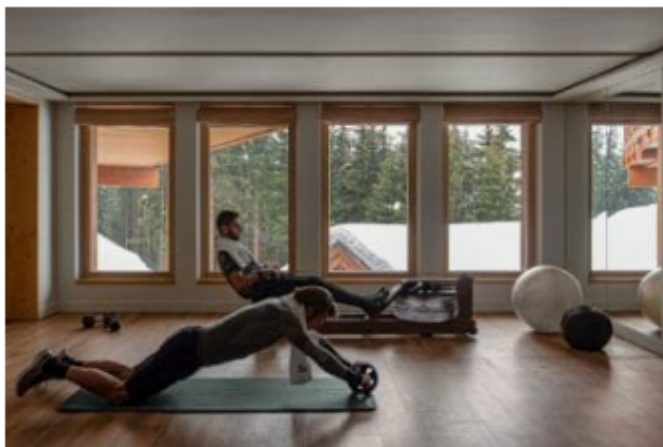

This season, Le Coucou will continue to offer guests and visitors incredible dining options at both Biancaneve and Beefbar. Biancaneve serves authentic Italian food including Mushroom Cannelloni with fontina cheese and truffle, Puntarelle salad with Straciatella cheese and anchovy dressing, Pizza Stracchino with stracchino cheese, rucola, prosciutto ham and truffle. Le Coucou's Beefbar restaurant will continue to use top quality ingredients sourced from highly distinguished providers offering the finest and rarest cuts of Black Angus Prime, Wagyu WX and Kobe beef alongside fresh grilled fish, ceviche and carpaccio.

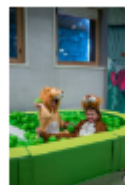

This season, Le Coucou is offering a signature Tata Harper treatment which is available at all Maisons Pariente properties. Providing serenity for the whole family, the spa has introduced a mother-daughter and father-son treatment alongside the organic brand Minois. The treatment includes a 40-minute body massage and 20-minute facial. Le Coucou also offers tailored treatments for mothers-to-be and men to ensure a rejuvenating alpine break for all.

Le Coucou has partnered with Aime Skincare, founded by Mathilde Lacombe, offering guests her famous collagen milk drinks, which will be served in the spa, bar and restaurants. Aime Skinware will also provide a simple solution to sleep with the introduction of the sleep and glow treatment alongside a range of skincare products all available at the spa. Guests will discover KOS essential oils, Le Bouche Rouge, a manicurist and David Mallett haircare available at the hotel ensuring guests are pampered from head to toe.

Experiences – something for everyone

Méribel caters for all ages and ski abilities and has so much more than just skiing and snowboarding to offer its visitors. Guests at Le Coucou can count on the concierge team to ensure an unforgettable stay in the mountains. From hiking in the forest on snowshoe or snowmobile, dog or pony sledging down the slopes, magical hot-air balloon rides and paragliding amongst the clouds or snow yoga on the slopes, the possibilities are endless.

The ski in ski out hotel is located in prime position in Méribel, the central resort of the Three Valleys, the largest ski-area in the world. Offering guests a pampering alpine stay, boasting 55 rooms including 39 suites, two private chalets, two restaurants, a bar, a Tata Harper Spa, two swimming pools, one indoor and one outdoor, a fitness room, sauna and two kid's clubs.

Nightly rates at Le Coucou start from 460 Euros on a half board basis. For reservations and information email reservations@fecoucoumeribel.com.
